

Integer Deployed as a Three Tiered Application

Filter – exposed to public Internet. Protects FE. Bi-directional.

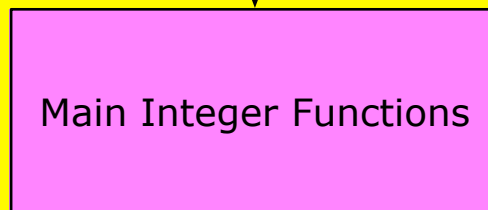

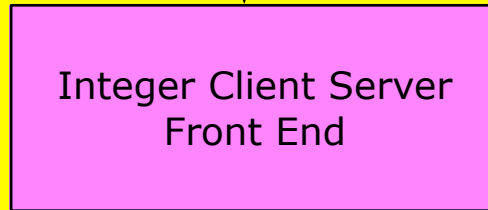

May have none, some, or a lot of access control on non-administrative interfaces.

Only permits communication between assigned FE(s) and paired business logic layer.

Usually has some session state.

Only permits communication between single assigned BL and persistence layer.

Persistence layer may communicate with local or remote storage facilities dictates addl. filter requirements

All data feeds into and out of BL Layer

Lines indicate filtering can be bidirectional.